Ground Broken at High School Plant For Gym and Pool

Another Step Taken in Development of Local Institution Into One of Finest in State Is Taken as Work Begun on Two More Units Today

Ground was broken yesterday on two new projects in the master plan which will provide the Village and vicinity with one of the finest high school plants in the southland when completed. Construction is under way today on the new gymnasium and pool marking the continuing development of the Palm Springs unified school district into the best in the state.

P. O. Business In 1947 Shows Continued Gain

Business was good at the Palm Springs post office in 1947, R. M. Horham, postmaster said yesterday.

Every quarter except the second showed a substantial gain over the corresponding quarter in 1946 and the year's total was $9,386.84 higher than that of 1946.

Total for 1947 in postal receipts was $115,787.46. For 1946 total receipts were $106,400.62.

BY QUARTERS, the first, February and March was well above the corresponding quarter in 1946, the second quarter showed a $600 slump—that for April, May and June, but the summer quarter, July, August and September, showed another gain as did the final three months, October, November and December.

The receipts by quarters:

Months of planning in the architectural offices of Harry Williams, A.I.A. and Stewart and Roger Williams, associates, culminated in the model of the completed plant as shown on this page.

THE COMPLETED development at the senior high school and proposed Junior college on the 30-acre site north of Ramon Road, calls for an auditorium and additional classrooms as well as a well planned and adequate grounds.

Contracts for the new gymnasium and pool have been signed by the school board with W. D. Haxton of San Diego for the gymnasium and Stanley Runyan, Inc., for the pool.

Cost of both is estimated at $300,000 and it is expected that both units will be ready for use in September, 1948, when the new school term begins.

THE NEW GYMNASIUM building will be of laminated arch and concrete block construction and will provide complete facilities for all phases of athletic activity. The main hall, spanning 110 feet covers the varsity basketball court and two practice courts. Seating for 1500 spectators will be provided through bleachers arranged along both sides of the main court.

Locker rooms, showers, special exercise rooms, rest and first aid facilities are provided for both boys and girls in the units flanking the main hall. These will serve both the athletic fields which are behind the gymnasium and the fine pool in front.

The pool has been designed to provide facilities for swimming and diving instructions as well as regulation swimming meets and races. It will be 50' wide by 105' long.

Good Start

$100 in Prizes Await
Don McMahon, Jr.

DONALD GREGORY McMAHON JR. was born under a lucky star.

He was the winner of the Village Stork Derby, being the first baby born in Palm Springs in 1948.

According to hospital attachés, Donald Jr. came into the world at 9:04 a.m. Friday. Since announcement of his birth in Friday's edition of the Desert Sun, no other has laid claim to the title bestowed upon Donald and he was therefore officially declared the winner.

As a result, the new seven-pound one-half ounce offspring of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gregory McMahon, will receive more than $100 in prizes ranging from baby pictures to dinners for the proud parents.

It was the second baby born to the McMahons at the Community Hospital. The first, a girl who was named Patricia was born on Nov. 9, 1946. The father is with Western Airlines here.

First Aid Class

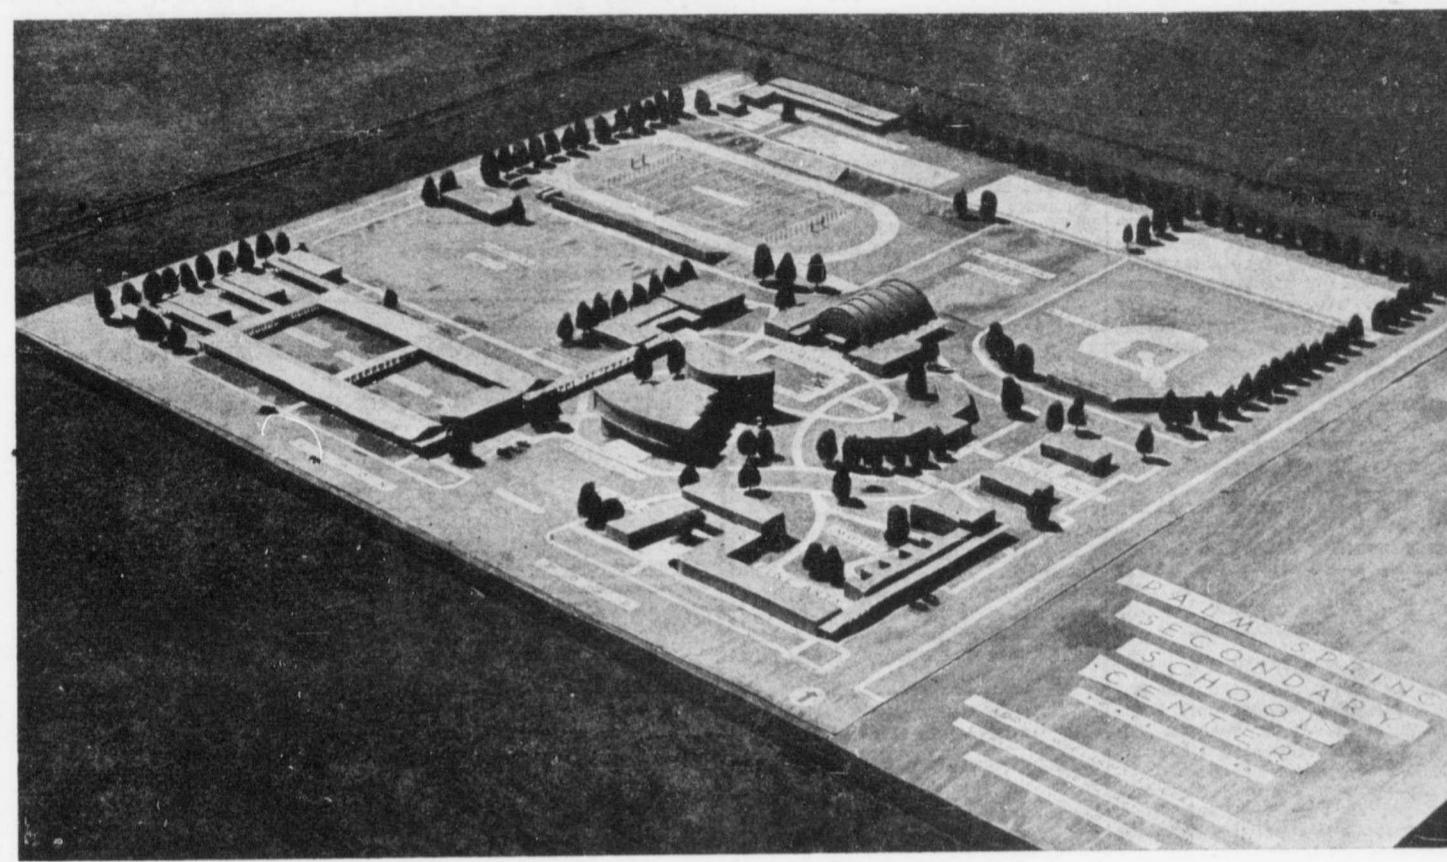

Instructions Start
Tomorrow Night

OFFICES of the Palm Springs branch of the American Red Cross announced yesterday that a first aid class would start tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock at the fire hall in Cathedral City and that classes would be given weekly.

Twenty five have already enrolled but there is room for more.

The classes will be conducted by Ben Anderson of Riverside and B. F. Stallions of Palm Springs.

Baseball, like history, repeats. At the start of the Valley League, Coachella defeated Palm Springs 8 to 6. They did it by the same score at the Field Club Sunday.

Legion Dedicates Memorial Building

Palm Springs County's First City in Building

Palm Springs, second city in the county in assessed valuation and in many other departments, was the first city in the county in building operations during 1947, a survey revealed yesterday.

During the year, building permits valued at $6,661,154 were issued here.

This figure tops any city in the county, the closest being Riverside, the county seat, which reported a 1947 building record of $5,928,906.

Full reports are not yet in but P. M. Swart of the building department is confident Palm Springs will rate high in the southland, well ahead of many cities of much larger population.

Fussed

He Drove Wrong Car
More Than Six Miles

BEN NORDMAN'S face was red no doubt but he called the police just the same.

The cause of his embarrassment stemmed from his report to the police that he had driven all the way from Cathedral City in an automobile he had mistaken for his own.

"Please," he is reported to have pleaded, "if the person who owns the car reports it stolen, tell him it is parked here near my home at the Palm Garden Apartments."

Legion Chief Believes Politics Will Kill UMT Bill This Session

Former newspaperman, Chief of Police of Manchester, New Hampshire and now National Commander of the American Legion, James F. O'Neil, made some pungent remarks about national politics as related to universal military training, communistic activity in this country and veteran's housing bills, in an interview here Saturday.

In Palm Springs to assist in dedicating the Legion's War's Memorial building and a guest at the Desert Inn with his party, O'Neil during a press interview foresaw the possible defeat of UMT during the current session of Congress.

"IT WILL BE touch and go," declared the National commander. "The bill is of a controversial nature and politicians will want to avoid it during an election year."

This may happen, said O'Neil, despite the fact that millions throughout the country and a majority of congress favor UMT. He added that approximately 30,000 signatures will be attached to the Legion's petition for UMT by the time it reaches Washington, D. C. In California the Legion commander declared that 2,000,000 names would be shown on the petition from this state.

"UMT ENACTED into law would be a basic form of security against war and would add power to the petition of our secretary George Marshall in dealing with Russia," opined O'Neil.

As for communism in this country, O'Neil said that the American Legion was launched on a vigorous program of education in an effort to acquaint persons in this country with what that type of government stands

Inaugural

New Golden State
Viewed by Villagers

Palm Springs Sunday went back to the small town days when everyone went down to the depot to see the train come in.

A representative group of Villagers was present at the Southern Pacific depot to see the new Golden State Limited on its inaugural trip at 3 p.m.

The new silver and cardinal diesel-powered train rolled in on the dot and George B. Hansen, passenger traffic manager for the S.P., a passenger on the first trip, stepped off to be greeted by Villagers.

Chairmen Meet at Breakfast Today

With Lyle C. Newcomer, chairman of the 1948 Community Campaign presiding, a pre-drive meeting of committee chairmen and others interested in this spring's campaign was held this morning at 8:30 o'clock at the Desert Inn at breakfast.

Plans for the $55,000 drive were outlined.

All Crafts Represented At Meeting

Five-Men Committees
From Employees and Unions To Meet Again

Determined to sign all businessmen in the Village to union contracts 26 top flight leaders of the American Federation of Labor and organizers representing practically every craft used in the city met with members of the Palm Springs Employer's association yesterday afternoon at the El Paseo building.

Aim of the union leaders was to gain contracts from employers here asking for a closed shop in some instances and union shops with the privilege on the part of employers to hire labor provided these employees join a union within a reasonable length of time.

FIFTY MEMBERS of the Palm Springs Employer's association were present at the meeting which was presided over by Lee Bering, president of the Palm Springs Tennis club and Earl Wilson, executive secretary, Central Labor Council of San Bernardino and Riverside counties, for the unions.

Crafts represented included plumbers, plasterers, carpenters, painters, pipe fitters, culinary workers, butchers, retail clerks, teamsters, motion picture projectionists, stage hands, iron workers and retail clerks.

IN ADDITION to Wilson other union officials included Elmer J. Doran, secretary of Building Trades; S. L. Hefley, president of the Riverside Central Labor Council and Hugh F. Armel, president of the Central Labor Council of San Bernardino.

Two other high union officials who do not have to answer to anybody but President William Green of the American Federation of Labor, were Irvin Cary and Walter Latton.

IT WAS CLEARLY indicated, judging from the tenure of the meeting, that the unions are determined to obtain some decisive commitment on the part of the Palm Springs Employer's association within the near future.

The meeting was concluded after Wilson pressed successfully for a decision to have a committee of five representatives of the Employer's association meet with an equal number of union organizers with the view of signing a contract at the end of that conference.

MEMBERS PRESENT voted to agree to place the matter of the second meeting before the board of directors of the Palm Springs Employer's association. No definite date for the get-together was decided.

Under query by two or three of the employers as to what either the employer or employee would gain by joining the union, the answers by Wilson were general without any specification.

Specialist

Recreational Expert
To Be Here Jan. 14

George W. Braden, specialist on recreational training, will be in the Village January 14 to confer with city fathers on the development of recreational facilities for Palm Springs.

Some of the discussion will center around plans to make the Field Club a sports center through alteration and further development of that city owned property.

The PUBLISHER'S Corner

by OLIVER B. JAYNES

JANUARY 13th will be a lucky day for Palm Springs if Villagers get their Chamber of Commerce off to a good start on that day. The meeting will be interesting, important... and the lunch free! That's right; Lee Bering, manager of the club, says this one is on the house.

The Tennis Club, he explains, is putting on this party for the Chamber of Commerce members and friends as its contribution toward the success of the vital community organization.

The writer can personally guarantee that everyone who attends will be interested in the talk by Don Thomas, director of the All-Year Club of Southern California. The man is a super-salesman. F. G. Runyon, editor of the Pasadena Independent, says that Thomas is the only man in the world who could sell an old Churchill campaign button to Josef Stalin for both daytime and evening wear.

The All-Year Club's community advertising campaign—to which the local chamber contributes $1000 a year—brought $590,000 in tourist cash to Southern California in 1946, probably a like amount during the year just closed. There's no way telling how much found its way to Palm Springs. If it could be known, it would likely even surprise Harry Harper.

Don Thomas knows the tourist business—what brings it and keeps it away. He knows more about Southern California climate—and how to sell it—than any other man in the state. He'll have something to tell us about the future prospects... something we have been wondering about, worrying about.

Mark down this important luncheon date, Mr. Palm Springs business man.

CONGRATULATIONS to the Owen Coffman Post of the American Legion for a fine clubhouse—which was dedicated last week. It represents many years of hard work and is a credit to the post and the Village. It supplies one of our most-needed facilities. Almost every Villager will be enjoying this meeting place several times a year. Its broadcasting facilities are of particular value to Palm Springs. Again we say: Congratulations Legionaires!

Politics Today

By ETHEL WHITEHORN
LOOKING AHEAD

Next November, America's citizens—for the first time in sixteen years—will enjoy the novel experience of voting for Presidential candidates who have no third and fourth term records.

This Nation—at long last—has recognized the fact that there is no such individual as the indispensable man. The correction of that situation was made almost one year ago when the law was enacted permitting a President to hold office for two terms.

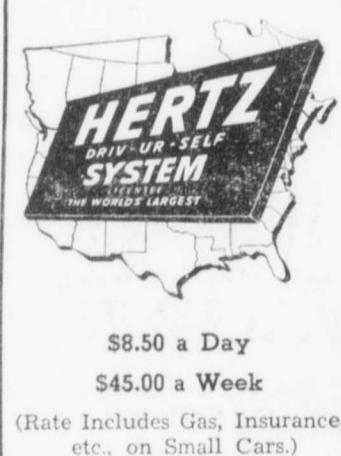

DOUBTLESS, the coming campaign will be the most interesting and the most lively political carnival in our entire history. Its main interest lies in the fact that our younger citizens—now in their twenties and early thirties—haven't known any Presidents other than Franklin D. Roosevelt.

PROGRESS ON EVERY FRONT

* The advance of medicine against the enemy, disease, sweeps forward on every front. Techniques of anesthesia have improved to make possible surgical procedures denied to the practitioner of the twenties. Highly refined and specialized mechanical aids, including the x-ray, fluoroscope, and electrocardiograph, have sharpened diagnostic skills. Testing of the blood and urine reveals more significant facts to the physician than ever before.

In support of the physician, the pharmaceutical chemist continues to forge new chemical and biological weapons to fight disease. Insulin for the management of diabetes mellitus, liver extract for pernicious anemia, sulfa drugs, and penicillin are examples. Your physician and your pharmacist are alert to apply the improved procedures as they become available.

Local District Contains Most County Roads

Supervisional district No. 4, in which Palm Springs is located, contains the greatest mileage of roads maintained by the county according to report of A. C. Keith, county road commissioner and surveyor.

There are 2170 miles of county roads and 1042 of them are in this district, Keith reported to supervisors.

Approximately $800,000 in state funds is expected for use on maintenance of county roads on the basis of $300 per mile to be paid into the county road fund from the state highway users' tax fund, Keith said.

Book Seminar Tomorrow Night

"Wealth of Nations," Adam Smith's book, will be the topic of the next discussion in the series of Great Book Seminars at Wellwood Murray Public library.

The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. in the Children's wing of the library with Mrs. Melba Bennett presiding.

The Diplomatic Front

Look Into Crystal Ball for '48 Reveals Neither End of East-West Rift Nor War

By DONALD BELL

(Copyright, 1947, Overseas News Agency, Inc.)

NEW YORK (ONA)—There are two ways to make predictions: follow your intuition and be hailed either a real genius or a charlatan; or analyze a given situation, search for historical analogies and simply calculate what is most likely to happen, provided no new factors appear suddenly on the horizon. The latter method was recommended by the great Roman orator Cicero when he said: "I shall always consider the best guesser the best prophet."

The safest way to guess what will happen on the diplomatic front in 1948 is to assume that all the unsolved problems of 1947 will reappear in the news. The conclusion of peace treaties for Germany and Austria, or at least the reorganization of Germany as a preparation for a peace treaty, will remain the crucial problem of 1948.

Conferences will be held among the three Western nations, France, Britain and the United States, to integrate their zones of occupation to some degree. It is quite probable that a new Big Four conference will attempt to settle the three thorny issues of the Ruhr, reparations and a central German government, and it is possible that a larger conference will be called for the same purpose, comprising all or many of the smaller nations which are technically still at war with Germany. It is quite possible that the Austrian Government will seize the initiative to find a definition for German assets in that country and thus remove the last obstacle to conclusion of an Austrian peace treaty.

THE GREEK PROBLEM, somewhat changed by the establishment of a rebel government in the north, will become even more acute than during the last year.

It is almost certain that it will be brought before the Security Council, and as a compromise seems difficult during the first half of 1948, it will reappear on the agenda of the General Assembly in the Fall.

The same is true for the Korean issue. Indonesia will be a bone of contention between the colonial powers on the one side and the Asiatic nations on the other.

But there are some new problems, too. We have slowly prepared for a Japanese peace conference, and when General MacArthur returns from Tokyo in the spring, the time will have arrived to find a new structure for that country. Difficulties will arise on that issue not only with Russia, which wants a decisive voice in the drafting of that treaty, but also with Australia and China, both of which want a weak Japan, for obvious reasons of security, whereas an important group in the State Department favors a stronger Japan firmly allied with the United States.

THE MARSHALL PLAN, now called the European Recovery Program, must get its final form during the next three to four months, and that will focus Europe's attention on Washington. The question is not only how much money we will appropriate and whether we will fix a definite amount for the whole period of four years or reserve our decision from year to year, but also whether Congress will pin conditions on our aid program. If Congress does, as is rather probable, the next issue will be whether the Western European nations can accept what will amount to a curb on their sovereign rights. This may create difficulties not only with such proud major nations as Britain and France, but also with smaller states like Belgium and Switzerland which have pledged participation in the ERP without being in need of material support.

The Congressional deliberations about the ERP may be disturbed by new waves of unrest or even political reorientation in two of the most important Marshall Plan countries. Elections are due in Italy early in April, and nobody can at this time safely predict their outcome. The Popular Front alliance of Communists and Left-Wing Socialists is still strong in that country, and the possibility cannot be excluded that it may win a majority or at least become strong enough to block an anti-Communist government.

France will probably enter her critical period in May when, according to the new Constitution, the present National Assembly can be dissolved. General de

JOYA and JAYNO Tell All

Despite any fears that people may have concerning the New Year and the events that it will bring, New Year's Eve is always an occasion for the gayest of parties, the most festive of moods, the heartiest of laughs... Toasts to a happy and prosperous New Year, "Auld Lang Syne," a little sadness, a great deal of happiness, these are the things that make New Year's Eve glow with an air of excitement as everyone forgets for an evening their uncertainties and the problems of an uneasy world.

Starting off New Year's Eve by entertaining a small group of friends in their lovely home were the Paul Trousdale... Joining them were the Morley Drurys, the Bob Becks, the Russell Wades, the Harry Reids Jr., and John Seamans... Out at Thunderbird Ranch, Frank Bogert greeted his guests dressed as a Siberian cowboy in a costume complete with earmuffs and snowshoes. To give you an idea of how informal and laugh-producing some of the other outfits were, Mrs. A. J. Swedland appeared in a Carmen Miranda headpiece in the shape of a basket of fruit almost two feet high... From all reports was a wonderful party full of fun and frolic and delightfully free of city-slickery...

Seems as if Palm Springs is becoming a new center for foreign sports cars... with Tommy Lee and his collection, Cliff Henderson and his Delahaye, and now Bob Neal and his French Talbot (it's the little maroon one that was speeding around town all weekend) which Bob recently purchased from Tommy Lee... saw him using it to escort Diana Lynn out to Palm Desert where she got the $10 tour from real estate broker, Don Kennedy. Diana is down here for a rest before starting her new picture which means being at the studio by 6:30... Other celebrities out viewing the progress at Palm Desert were Jimmy Stewart and Mrs. Henry Fonda, and Mr. and Mrs. "Ollie" Olsen who have recently purchased property there...

Our sympathy to the Kenneth Kirks who had been looking forward for a long time to the Rose Parade, the Rose Bowl game, and several large parties in town to which they were invited... Then along came Virus X and Mrs. Kirk was forced to stay in bed throughout the whole holiday weekend... She had a very personal interest in the game too since she is an alumna of Michigan...

We said once that "Palm Springs has shiny cars and cocktail bars and movie stars" and the latter was especially true over the past weekend... Ann Rutherford, who is in her new home here now, was on the Racquet Club tennis courts lessening from Dave Gillam, ... Other tennis players are Benay Venuta and her husband, Armand Deutsch (who is, by the way, a very good player,) Tony Martin, Spencer Tracy, Ava Gardner (at

Thad's Feet Hurt

After a long, hard day's work on the farm, Thad's idea of how to spend an evening is to take off his shoes, and relax with a mellow glass of beer.

But his missus has other ideas. After being in the house all day, she's all for walking to the village, if it's only for a soda. Likes to see people, catch the latest gossip. But Thad says, no, his feet hurt! Begun to cause unpleasantness in Thad's home.

Then Bill Webster comes up with an idea. If Thad takes the missus to

Many Gay Parties In Village Greet New Year's Arrival

It was truly a gala evening Wednesday night as everyone was "on the town" ringing in the New Year at various parties between Thunderbird Ranch and the Racquet Club. Villagers and visiting celebrants could be found toasting the New Year, wishing happiness and prosperity to all to the strains of "Auld Lang Syne" attired in dress ranging from white tie and tails and decolletage gowns to extreme and colorful Western costumes.

At Thunderbird Ranch the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bogert were invited for a very informal and typically Western welcoming in of the New Year. Appearing gaily attired in ludicrous costumes were numerous out-of-town guests at the Ranch and numerous Villagers. San Franciscans present were Judge and Mrs. O. D. Hamlin, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Swedland, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whiteman, Miss Paula Fatjo, Mrs. Mary Fatjo, and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Brower. Merry-making Villagers included Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cordrey, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Delano, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Moseley, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Hinkle, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Purnell, Milt Hicks, Tony Burke, Priscilla Chaffey, Cliff Henderson, with Sallye Lasley, Trav Rogers, and Bill Gargan.

Albert Frey chose New Year's Eve to christen his remodeled home with its unique living room containing an indoor rock garden and fishless pond. Marvelling at his fireplace which is built in the center of the room while enjoying turkey and champagne were Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Burnham Bigelow, Ronald Herzog, Robert Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. John Clarks, Barbara Schilly, Barbara Nodurft, and Albert Frey Sr.

At "Pink Oasis," the name of her desert home, Mrs. Lena Rogers entertained for cocktails a large group of friends who later proceeded to the Tennis Club for its gala party. Ray Whitaker and his orchestra were on hand with their gay numbers to help the guests get into the festive spirit. Among those bidding to the delightful affair were Mrs. Roger's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Edgar of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davies; Dr. and Mrs. John Costello, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Simons, Chris Pierce and Ethel Fuller.

The Tennis Club and the Racquet Club both drew capacity crowds on the gay evening with members and their guests appearing in formal dress. Tennis Club celebrants included Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Hall, their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. James Smythe with Mr. and Mrs. David Foutz; Mrs. Dorothy Levin with Mr. and Mrs. Neville Redmon, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Getz, and Albert Windle; Dr. and Mrs. Ross Sutherland; Mrs. Harold Bell Wright with a group of friends; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grant with Mr. and Mrs. Nick Carter; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dunbar; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Colborn; and many, many others.

The scene of one of the most colorful New Year's parties was the Wonder Palm hotel and Guest Ranch. In the gaily decorated dining room guests of the hotel and several tables of Villagers danced to the music of a rhumba band, sang, and rang in the New Year with traditional good cheer.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blumenfeld, owners of the hotel, were present at the party, having come down on Christmas Eve with their children from San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Gummo Marx were also among the guests adding their humor to the evening. Present also were Eleanor Green, San Francisco dress designer, Mr. and Mrs. David Kay of Beverly Hills, Mr. and Mrs. David Fox of New York and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cy Fuhrman, Hugo Ulman of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Kay.

Among the Villagers who celebrated there were Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Anderson of the Palm Springs Pueblo and a group of their friends.

Townsend Netcher Celebrates Birthday

Townsend Netcher celebrated his birthday last week at the Doll House in a party which included Mrs. Netcher, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Roach Jr., Helen Walker, Bruce Humberstone, and several others. Mr. and Mrs. Netcher have recently returned to Palm Springs where they were married during the fall.

READY TO SHOVE OFF—Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Oertel of Palm Springs board the S. S. Corsair for a 12-day tour of Mexican waters to enjoy a New Year's cruise and rest and relaxation. They return to the city Friday.

Casitas del Monte was the mecca for many Hollywood film colony figures during the holiday week.

Virginia Mayo, who has just completed her latest picture, was a guest for two weeks at the local spa. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse L. Lasky, son and daughter, for a ten-day sojourn in the sun.

Others from Hollywood movie-land were Bill Treville, costume designer for Warner Brothers, and Mrs. Treville, in the Village for a week's stay, and Mr. and Mrs. Al Teitelbaum, the former furrier for many of the screen notables.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Berger were among the guests. They are the parents of Norma Brown, recent bride of Arthur Brown, son of Charles Brown, owner of the Casitas del Monte.

Etruscan dentists 2300 years ago made false teeth by carving one ox tooth to replace two human teeth and fastening them in the mouth with gold supports.

The new year was well ushered in around these parts with most people fully recovered from recent colds and raring to go. Harold Hicks was down for the count so Bill Bogess had the honor of escorting Caroline to a round of parties. Out at the south end of town Milt Hicks held open house for cocktails before the group adjourned to further merriment at Thunderbird.

Old Father Time usually passes out at the stroke of twelve and in this respect Kenny Paul was out of character but otherwise he made a wonderful old year costumed in a sheet, beard and sythe. Others partaking in the fun at Thunderbird were the Barney Hinkles, Hutch Moseley, Bill Chinn, Phil Delanos, Bill Grants, Tony Burke, Leo Fields and many more. Around midnight many drifted north to the Racquet Club or to join other parties. Much hilarity went Albert Frey's way. Guests enjoyed a buffet supper and toasted the new year in with champagne. Down the road a spell Mary and Bill Gargan and Trav and Willie Rogers plus heaps of lobsters were giving their guests a wonderful time. The lobsters were flown from Maine by Stuart Hoppe.

ANOTHER lovely party took place at the Lauritz Hansen home. Besides their house guests and family the Hansens entertained the Carl Lykkens and C. S. Hendersons for dinner and an evening of fun. Before the evening was over everyone could sing in Danish. Col. Everett Leak, the Hansen's son-in-law, left this week to resume his duties with the Marine Corps in Washington, D. C.

The Desert Inn dining room was packed to overflowing and there was quite a scramble when twenty-five hundred balloons were released at midnight. Tom and Betty Kiely hosted a party which consisted of Romi and Bill Marvin, Dottie and Jack Gorham, Alice and Earl Hough, Jane and Earl Neel and the Bob McNeills and a Pt Johnson and Virgil Davidson from Los Angeles. The Jack Hardys dropped in during the evening. They had just returned from a flying trip to Savannah, Georgia to visit Margaret's family for Christmas.

IF CUB PARKER is bragging just a little bit these days we'll have to admit he is justified. Cub had been waiting for weeks to see his Alma Mater do their stuff in the Rose Bowl and there's no denying they did it.

During their absence from Palm Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gendel and children of Los Angeles, their friends, spent the holidays at the Whitehorn home here.

Mr. Gendel is Mr. Whitehorn's attorney.

Belardo road was formally dedicated and everyone took a tour of the lovely new building which will not only be the meeting place of the Legion and the Auxiliary but will be the center for many civic functions.

Horse Tales

BY RYDER

It is generally agreed that a newspaper article is composed for the purpose of supplying the recent news to the readers. Any one in his right mind would soon arrive at just this conclusion but since this writer is not in his right mind, almost anything is likely to take place in this column.

It is also to be expected that Horse Tales would be the most likely place to locate the news of horses and western activities. Again you poor readers are oftentimes due for a shock. Due to the fact that the Tales are Exclusive (whatever that means) with the DESERT SUN, and since there is so much more happening on the trails every day, it is impossible to cover all the events as fully as some folks think it should be covered.

If there were not so much space wasted on this sort of silly writing there no doubt would be more than enough room to give a complete list of the winners of each event at the Gymkhana, all the names of the riders attending the various group rides and all that sort of thing. However: yours truly prefers to drift from one thing to another and really say nothing of interest by the time I get finished writing this bit of chatter (via the hunt and peck system on the Royal).

Collecting my thoughts, all two of them, and getting things into shape, I think it fitting to tell you a little story about the boys at the Smoke Tree stables. That's where George Rasmussen lives during the winter season and raises a few pigs because he has more milk than he knows what to do with. When the pigs are converted to pork chops I will be very happy to accept an invite to dinner, providing Mrs. R. is the one who does the cooking. It ain't that I don't trust G's ability, I'm just cautious. Anyway, Jack Morgan was playing soldier tother day by going around with a big ole drum. Maybe he was trying to drum up business but it sure scared the daylights out of Ginger and Pug, two little dogs around the stables. Both of them took off for parts unknown and were gone for quite some time. Ginger returned before San Jacinto hid old Sol but Pug is still among the missing. Perhaps someone has taken the friendly little fellow into their home and if such is the case, it would be greatly appreciated if the good foster parents would return him to the ranch. John Ogilvie is Pug's owner, master and friend and certainly misses him and all the other boys are feeling mighty blue since he has left. Cowboys have often mourned the passing of an old friend but they are also very capable of missing a four footed friend so let's all keep our eyes open for Pug and send him home as soon as possible.

JES' CHATTER: Shelly, two year old daughter of Griff and Barbara Macdonald is visiting in Desert Hot Springs but stopped at the Rancho stables and had her first ride on a horse. Mrs. F. M. Engram kept a weather eye on the little tyke and announced that the youngster will soon be riding around the ring without assistance . . . Coin Ricketts, the other party interested in the Rancho stable has recently received a shipment of some very fine fantail pigeons and is very happy to show them to everyone who stops at the place. Coin also showed one of his five gaited horses at the Gymkhana last Sunday . . . The Gymkhana was a big success and had one of the finest crowds to ever attend one of the baby rodeos we have had . . . The Rasmussen kids did quite well by taking several of the prizes and Bobby Henderson came down from Banning to win one of the cash awards and a blue ribbon . . . Perhaps the best performance of the day was turned in by Roy Burnett from Thunderbird. Roy missed the calf with his first loop, built another, stepped off his pony and had the pigging string in place in 38 seconds which was good enough to win him the second place in the calf roping . . . June Freeland; Dr. and Mrs. Dollard and daughter Barbara and son Jack; Mrs. Potter with her daughter Mable; Ted Wilson of Chicago; Tommy Thompson, owner of La Cita stables and The Stables (and I don't know what else) and a big gang from Deep Well Ranch were only a few of the folks who rode in the grand entry parade . . .

Milner Anderson, one of the owners of the Palm Springs Pueblo, was at the breakfast ride Saturday but said he was forced to reside in another hotel because Jerry Weber (Mgr. of the Pueblo) had not enough room for the owner in his own place . . . Jerry also kidnapped Jim Clark and took him to Boyer's stable for the ride. Jerry says all his employees are going to attend the rides so that they will be able to answer the guests' questions properly. This is a mighty fine idea, the only trouble being that the folks will enjoy it so much that they will never want to work Saturday mornings . . . Leo Fields did a bang up job as MC for the entertainment but was suddenly put into the background of things when Dr. Drag (Jack Klorh) Harlin arrived and sold a batch of Tiger Fat to the good people . . . Jimmy Lyden, one of the cast of "Life with Father" told about the trouble he had had with the dye job on his hair for the picture . . . Lee Norris is here from N. Y. and said she was sorry the Television people did not broadcast the affair because the folks down East would certainly enjoy seeing it . . . She should know, Lee is one of the Television girls . . . Barney Hinkle was there in all the glory of a purple shirt so Johnny Boyle sang "The Lavender Cowboy" just for him . . . Pat Boyer was there taking care of the long, green foulard stuff but had to hurry home to take care of the Christmas gifts, one of them dogs that 'er half a dog high and two dogs long.

THOUGHTS WHILE RIDING: Wonder if Ann Gerhart will want to return to school in Phoenix, Arizona, after spending her Christmas vacation here. Most of her time in the Village was spent at the Araby stable riding . . . Billie Mosley took the Girl Scouts to Eagle Canyon and says the trail is in good condition. Must go there myself . . . Sally Pringle, Pat Pepper, Loretta Brower and Sue Watson were with Billie and I'm wondering if any of them might have their eye on her nephew who is visiting from Richmond . . . Hutch Mosley has been sick in bed for a few days and I shore hope he is feeling better by this time. Christmas is a heck of a time to be ill . . . Jim Shaw, the long tall feller from The Stables had John (10) and Ann (11) Huntington of San Francisco over to the Gym—you know what, the other day and they sure looked like some good riders to me . . . Wish I could ride like Linda and Rochelle Shelton. They are 4 and 8 years old and sure sit in the saddle . . . Wonder who was out to the lunch-on ride Tuesday . . . Better check the reservation for the dinner and western dance at La Paz Thursday evening . . . Bill Nichols, wrangler at La Paz had some of his folks out eating breakfast Saturday. Hartley Fleshman (Harvard student); Mr. and Mrs. Freyes and their guests; the two Taber girls and several others rode over from the ranch and had a good meal . . . Wonder if Evelyn Pell and her two children are staying for the season. They are taking lessons at the La Cita stables and seem to be digging in for the winter.

ROAMIN' THE VALLEY: Fred

and Constance Whitman are keeping Jerry Mack busy at the Thunderbird stable and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Lauter of Los Angeles are down there on a honeymoon have found that a breakfast ride can also be a lot of fun . . . M. B. Smith of San Francisco spent the holidays at the Desert Inn and rode almost every day at Jack (Desert Chef) Boyer's . . . Betty Gibson is visiting Mrs. Engram and has been acting as a guide for the stable . . . Betty is from Whittier and will be returning after the first of the year . . . Raymond C. Schindler was the detective retained by Nancy Oaks during the time she really needed some good help. Ray told the gang some of the things he had found on the case and it all added to the excitement of the Saturday breakfast ride last week . . . The Los Compadres are staging a Gymkhana at the Field Club this coming Sunday. Be sure to arrange to be there and not miss a good time. It should be doubly good if Jimmy Cooper's wife takes her little Cooper riding in the grand entry as she did a few days ago. There they were, little addition of the family sitting in front of Ma and just loping along at great rate . . . The trail to Dripping Springs is very good for riding so why not plan a trip up there soon? . . . Walt Disney and his daughter Sharon are back in town and out on the trails every day.

Active Program is Planned at Teen Target Hobby Shop

Plans to activate the Hobby Shop at the Teen Target were in motion today with several donations from interested Villagers already made and others anticipated.

The Hobby Shop was made possible by a donation by Howard McAllister, winter resident, who wrote a check for the building in honor of his mother who lives in Los Angeles.

Equipment for the structure is now being sought and Miss Marie Kaye of the Teen Target, said any donations would be very acceptable.

side scribes who come here for a fling and then go home to write about being socked high prices here for meals and so on . . . If they crave high class entertainment, service and atmosphere, they pay for it, just as they would in Los Angeles, San Francisco or New York . . . If they'd go to comparable places here as they do at home, they'd get off just as cheaply . . . They expect, however, to play here at the same rate as at home where they drop into the Hole-in-the-Wall between assignments for a bowl of beans (on the cuff) . . . And besides, chances are most of those high prices went on to what the business office calls the "swindle sheet" . . . Or, maybe to justify it.

MODESTLY, Charles and John Connors, are accepting congratulations these days . . . The brothers are golfing fans and have built themselves a putting and driving range at their home . . . The golf balls they use are appropriately identified . . . The other day one of the balls was found in an almond orchard at Beaumont, 30 miles away . . . "Some drive," they agreed . . . But refused to mention the terrific hook that must have been there to take the ball around

WITH THE OLD-TIMERS back from the first annual hunt for the lost Peg-Leg mine, a lot of people have been asking about the history of that famous lost wealth . . . Harry Oliver, who originated the annual hunt, gave me the following which he had gleaned from Lee Shippey in the Los Angeles Times: Thomas L. Smith, a trapper and hunter, was shot in the leg in a battle with the Indians . . . When gangrene threatened he was such a human that, with only the aid of a bottle and a hunting knife, he amputated his leg . . . Then carved himself a peg-leg, gaining the title of Peg-Leg Smith . . . Nearly 20 years before gold was discovered in the north, 100 years ago this Jan. 24, Smith picked up some rocks while on a hunting trip . . . He forgot all about them until years later, he gave them to a San Francisco assayer . . . The assayer showed the rocks should run $2000 to the ton and Smith set off to rediscover the place where he got them . . . He couldn't find neither has anyone else since . . . All they know is that it is in the Borego valley.

BOREGO, incidentally, is spelled with one "r" above . . . Ed Duvall, who has been in the area for he can't remember how many years and has been Borego postmaster, says the word means

Pilot Grounded by Police After He Changes His Mind

Routine reports at the police station over the weekend were filled with reports of drunks arrested and traffic violations with the exception of one call that caused a hurried trip by police to the Palm Springs Airport at 7:35 p.m. Sunday.

At the airport Police Officers John Herrera and Ted Greene found the cause of the alarm in the form of Paul Yates, 3899 S. Orange drive, Los Angeles.

According to airport authorities, the police reported that Yates piloting his own plane had been taxiing about the field in an erratic manner and then took off presumably for Los Angeles. Instead, he came back in for a landing flying over an airliner about to take off.

Police said that Yates admitted having had a few drinks, decided to take off for Los Angeles and then changed his mind. His mind was changed completely when he agreed not to attempt to fly his plane anymore that day and to allow Mrs. Mary Nelson, airport manager to tie the ship down for the night.

Harry Oliver, for instance, currently has five or six projects in the fire ranging from splitting the country, through drives for new roads to covering up the scar the gas companies left on the desert.

PICKED UP a lot of information in two hours spent at Fort Oliver Sunday . . . Dry Camp Blackie was snorting over an item in the Sunday papers which told of a scientific instrument in which a group of tasters tried all kinds of eggs and came up with the verdict that the chicken's egg was the best . . . "Huh, they should have fried buzzard's eggs," he said . . . "Now, there's a versatile bird . . . I found a buzzard's egg once that looked like one of these dentist's models of a molar . . . Two prongs on it . . . All I can figure is that the buzzard must have been scared by a P-38."

Famous Peg Leg Mine Still Missing

740 Join Hunt for Riches

No Gold But Great Time for All in Borrego Outing

The famous lost Peg Leg mine is still lost.

But a monument to Thomas L. Smith, the Peg Leg of history, at the edge of the Borrego badlands is five feet high.

The first annual hunt for the lost mine was launched last Thursday with 740 old-time prospectors, rock hounds and 1948-model synthetic old-timers on hand. They brought the newest fangled chrome-trimmed washers, nickel-plated cradle and other prospector's equipment, even a portable assayer's outfit equipped with test tubes, furnaces and all.

But no lost mine.

THE ANNUAL SEARCH for the famous old strike of Peg Leg Smith more than a century ago was launched by Harry Oliver of the Thunderbird Palms and Palm Springs area. Only price to join in the hunt was to put ten rocks on a Peg Leg monument. And they did that with a vengeance.

Among the old timers present were Jack Douglas of Dutch Flat, known as the Old Prospector; Dry Camp Blackie, Oliver, of course, Robert Ransom (not such an old-timer) John Hilton, Howard Clark, Ray Hetherington, T. D. Harrison, Doc. A. A. Beatty, Harry Woods, Cabot Yerxa, Desert Hot Springs, Homer Stuart, Randall Henderson, Ed Duval, old time Borrego postmaster, and many others.

THE OLD-TIMERS had a great time swapping yarns, reminiscing and cooking on the many camp fires.

"Slept on the ground and had a great time," said Oliver. "Ouch, that knee still remembers that cold ground."

THAT-A-WAY—Doc. A. A. Beatty points with cane to where he thinks Peg-Leg Smith's lost mine lies as crowd at first annual Borrego desert Peg-Leg hunt looks on. Harry Oliver of Thousand Palms, who started the affair, is shown with black hat. Robert Ransom of Palm Springs sits with Beatty while Raymond Schindler, New York, extreme right, looks doubtful. Great Show at Peace Officer's Party

A star studded program consisting of celebrities of stage, screen and radio including plenty of local talent will highlight the annual dinner-dance of the Riverside County Peace Officer's association to be held in the Palm House tonight.

The affair which will be sponsored by the local police department will see Dick Haymes, Frank Sinatra and Al Pierce on the program. Also taking part in the entertainment will be the Three Loose Screws, now playing at the Del Tahquitz hotel; Connie Barlow of The Dunes; and the Novelties who are "tearing 'em apart" at the Chi Chi.

The entire show will be M.C.'d by Lew Fields, Villager and who is well remembered for his roles as the Kangaroo Sheriff during Western events in the Village.

Approximately 200 members of the Association are expected to be present including their friends. Among these will be Riverside County Sheriff Carl Rayburn, Coroner Ben White and representatives of the District Attorney's office. Judge Eugene E. Therieu will also be one of the honored guests.

Mayor Clarence Hyde will be on hand and will make the welcoming address.

Tickets for Free Buffet Luncheon January 13 Will Be Available at Chamber of Commerce Tomorrow

Tickets of admission to the big free buffet luncheon for members of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce at the Palm Springs Tennis Club next Tuesday, Jan. 13, will be available at the Chamber's office at 310 North Palm Canyon drive beginning Wednesday, it was announced today by Florian Boyd, president.

The event, at which Don Thomas, the outstanding authority in Southern California on the $300,000,000-a-year tourist industry, will be the speaker, is open to all members of the chamber and their friends, but admission must be by ticket. Members can obtain the tickets by calling at the chamber office. Any person who held a 1947 membership is eligible to ask for tickets.

MR. BOYD expressed the hope that every one of the nearly 300 members of the chamber of commerce will be present to hear the vital message from Mr. Thomas. As managing director of the All-Year Club which spends nearly $500,000 a year for promotion of Southern California, he recently made an exhaustive survey of the Eastern states and has figures and statistics of direct concern to every person in business or in a professional office in Palm Springs.

Manager Lee Bering of the Tennis Club is host to the chamber of commerce luncheon, evidencing his interest in the big 1948 program of activities which the chamber feels is urgently needed to lengthen the season and to bring additional persons here to occupy the hundreds of additional rooms and apartments constructed this year.

REPORTS of the effective photographic and publicity program which the chamber has carried on during the past two months will be submitted to the membership meeting along with details of the 1948 activity program.

Business firms not now members of the chamber of commerce are urged by Mr. Boyd to telephone the chamber office at 6111 or 6181 and take out memberships so that they will be eligible to hear the important talk by the All-Year Club official.

"Since Palm Springs' one 'industry' is the tourist travel here in the winter months, a talk by such a recognized authority as Mr. Thomas should be a 'must' on everyone's calendar," the chamber of commerce leader said today.

Holiday Week Is Merry One At Tramview

Tracview Trailer park was settling down into the groove of enjoying the desert and just lolling around after a big holiday week which saw entertainment, Santa Claus and a joyous welcome to 1948.

Christmas week was featured by an entertainment for the children, staged by Ken Woodbury, Mrs. Holly Lash Ivsel, Mrs. Elmer Markham, Mrs. Lois Lux and child entertainers from Palm Springs.

New Year's eve was the occasion for a dance which went on from the old year into the new.

The Saturday night western dances at the Village are proving a highly popular entertainment.

Cicero calls gratitude the mother of virtues, the most capital of all duties, and uses the words grateful and good as synonymous terms, inseparably united in the same character.—Bate.

Western Show to Be Staged Sunday By Los Compadres

Local Horsemen and Cowboys Invited To Vie for Many Prizes

Local horsemen and cowboys will be given a chance to compete for prizes in the Western Show to be staged by the Los Compadres at the Field Club Sunday, January 11, according to an announcement made by Wal Spalding in charge of publicity.

Events will get underway at 2 p.m. with a full program of fun, calf roping and other horsemen's contests. Between the various events spectators will see fine specimens of Tennessee Walking Horses and other prize equines.

Schedule of contests to be staged include the following: bareback Indian wrestling; Dude calf-tying, greased pig race for children; rescue race, ribbon tying on the tail of a roped calf and boot races for youngsters under 16 years of age.

Stake races will also be held. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Noted Dance Instructor Now At Del Tahquitz

Continuing his plan to bring the best to Palm Springs, Max Dresdner, owner of the Del Tahquitz along with many other famous hotels on the coast and in the midwest, announced that Baron Henri Pierre, internationally known dancer and instructor, would conduct classes by appointment at the hotel from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. starting this week.

Pierre is with the Veloz and Yolanda studios and his classes are under the auspices of that famous dancing team. With him to assist in instructions in the latest and all other dances, is Viviane Cavell.

Pierre is also a famous skater and in 1947 gave a command performance for Queen Elizabeth at Empress Hall in London.

Speaking of his dance instructions here he said that one thing he emphasizes is the newest simplified methods for dancing on a crowded floor, a handy thing to know these days.

Pierre comes here from dance classes at many famous hotels throughout the nation and in Europe. The list is a long one and includes the best. He said he was glad to have the chance to teach in Palm Springs.

Announcement of the date for opening of his studio will be made later this week.

Income Tax Man Here Thursday

Villagers with income tax problems and those who wish to pay here without the bother of mailing their returns will find a deputy internal revenue collector at the El Paseo Theater building, 810 North Palm Canyon drive, Thursday all day.

He will be there to assist Villagers with their returns and to accept payments.

Snake Eyes!

Police Say "Whoa!"
To Galloping Dice

Dem bones were rollin' and singing a sweet song in a tent on the Reservation until a police raiding party headed by Chief of Police August Kettmann changed the tune into a sorrowful lament.

Six colored gentlemen who were snapping their fingers and praying for seven or eleven were too busy to notice the intrusion of the law until it was too late.

As a result the dice and a double bag filled with $36.07 was confiscated and the six players were taken to the city klink where their plight was soon forgotten in a "postmortem" discussion of "who shot what" and "how much did you lose," and if I'd made that last pass, I'd be gone from here."

Nevertheless, despite losses in wooing Lady Luck, or winnings for that matter, Jim Brice, Sam Howell, Robert McKinney, Jack Fifer and Harold Jesse, all pleaded guilty to charge of gambling in Judge Eugene E. Therleau's court Monday morning, and paid a fine of $25 each. Wycliff Thomas, asserted to have been "running the game," was assessed a fine of $100 with $50 suspended.

Events will get underway at 2 p.m. with a full program of fun, calf roping and other horsemen's contests. Between the various events spectators will see fine specimens of Tennessee Walking Horses and other prize equines.

Schedule of contests to be staged include the following: bareback Indian wrestling; Dude calf-tying, greased pig race for children; rescue race, ribbon tying on the tail of a roped calf and boot races for youngsters under 16 years of age.

Stake races will also be held. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Chambers Joins Clark and Frey

John Porter Clark and Albert Frey of the firm of Clark and Frey, architects, announced this week that, as of January 1, Robinson Chambers, a well known architect, has become a member of the firm.

Clark and Frey have designed many of the public buildings and private homes in the Village.

Gasoline Prices Up 2 Cents a Gallon At All Stations

Gasoline prices at all major stations in Palm Springs were approximately two cents higher today than at the close of last year as all companies boosted prices per gallon for regular and Ethyl gasoline.

Regular gasoline was retailing for 24.9 cents per gallon and Ethyl, in most cases, for 26.9.

First hike came when Standard Oil boosted prices 1.8 per gallon after raising the price paid for crude oil 50 cents per barrel.

Other companies met the crude oil price but did not at once raise the retail price of gasoline. They followed in quick order, however, with Associated being the last to join Standard, Texas, Shell and Union in the boost.

Renew Attempt To Oust Gilmore As Supervisor

Renewal of the recall campaign against Supervisor Floyd E. Gilmore, Fifth District, will be started today with John A. Hansen, Perris Valley rancher, as the prospective candidate to succeed him.

Hansen made this announcement yesterday in conjunction with William E. Hornaday, sponsor of an earlier recall campaign against Gilmore as well as Su-perisors W. V. Pittman and Arthur Weirick. Nothing was said about renewing those campaigns.

Hansen said the decision to renew the campaign against Gilmore, whose term has another three years to run, was made by a group of civic leaders, including ranchers and businessmen of Perris Valley, Edgemont, Sunnymetad and other sections of the Fifth District.

High prices today call for lower-cost use of cheaper meats. Frankfurters can be teamed with cold cuts. Try wrapping a piece of bologna around a frankfurter, fasten with a toothpick, brown under medium flame in your broiler.

Legion Auxiliary Meets Tomorrow In New Building

The first meeting of Owen Coffman Unit, American Legion Auxiliary, to be held in the new World Wars Memorial building, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock, is expected to attract a large attendance.

An important business session will be followed by a Legislation-National Defense program with Col. Robert Ellsworth as the guest speaker.

WITH CONGRESS considering Universal Military Training and other legislation vital to the Nation's security and the welfare of veterans, this is the month for intensive activity on the part of the American Legion and its auxiliary in support of these measures.

Women who are eligible for membership in the auxiliary are cordially invited to attend Wednesday's meeting, and become members of the organization. Application forms may be obtained from the membership committee, Mrs. Lena Basilone, Mrs. John M. Connell, and Mrs. Joe Onlin, or from other members. The first initiatory ceremony to be held in the Memorial building will take place February 4.

THE AUXILIARY'S spacious room was inspected and admired by many who attended the formal dedication of the building last Saturday morning. It is beautifully furnished with bleached oak officers' stations, and chairs upholstered in yellow plastic. Colorful drapes and lamps add to the attractiveness of the room. Green asphalt tile forms the floor covering, and the overhead lighting fixtures of copper are unusually decorative.

The committee in charge of the furnishings, yet to be completed, are Mrs. Harold Lienau, chairman; Mrs. Robert Ellsworth, unit president; Mrs. G. K. Sanborn; Mrs. Jay Morrison, Mrs. C. V. Knupp and Miss Inah Peterson.

IT IS THE DESIRE of the committee to express appreciation through the press, to all residents and guests of the Village who supported the benefits sponsored by the auxiliary the past few months for the purpose of raising funds, making possible an attractively furnished meeting room, not only for the auxiliary but for other groups in the Village who may avail themselves of the opportunity to use it.

ELECTIONS are also likely in the four-power zone of Berlin. This big city presently has a pro-Western Social Democratic majority, but a victory of the Communist-dominated Socialist Unity Party is not impossible. That would bring the present unstable situation to a point where new decisions must be made for the whole of Germany, with the possible alternative of either uniting Germany or definitely splitting her into western and eastern states.

The General Assembly will hold its meeting somewhere in Europe at the very moment when this whole nation will be preoccupied with the Presidential election campaign. This will partly paralyze our diplomatic activities as neither Republicans nor Democrats can commit themselves to far-reaching foreign political decisions before the results of next November's elections are known. There may also be an attempt to leave essential parts of the UN apparatus in Europe.

Other unforeseeable factors, such as the harvests in various European and non-European countries, may have a deep effect on the needy nations which now orient themselves to a large degree toward those nations that can prevent starvation in the hungry areas of the globe. Altogether, however, it may be assumed that 1948 will be neither the year in which a definite solution of the East-West conflict can be found, nor the year in which the issues will become so sharpened that a decision between war and peace will become unavoidable.

Desert Hayride is New Year Feature

New Year's Day was a gala one for children of the Tahquitz Vista and El Encanto with a hayride out on to the desert under supervision of Jeanne Giraud, entertainment director at the two hotels, the feature of the day. A supper was at the end of the ride with cowboy entertainment.

Among the youngsters who enjoyed the ride were Susan Corneil, Billy and Alan Frankenstein, Allan Freedman, Stephen and Leslie Strong, Stephen and Gene Acronio, Michael Walley, Shirley and Conrad Rasmussen, Jean Levy, Rochelle Weinstein, Douglas and Bob Dandler, Jane Leanne, Vicki Damning, Frances and Linda

Cathedral City News Roundup

By MARY R. WOLSETH and HATTIE DERING SCHWARTZ

Mrs. Bennett Will Speak Tomorrow To Woman's Club

Woman's Club of Cathedral City will be entertained by Melba Bennett, of Deep Well Guest Ranch at their meeting tomorrow afternoon in the Town Hall at 2 o'clock. Her topic will be "Contemporary Poets and Rare Books". She herself has a fine collection of rare books and is a well known poet in her own right.

January 21, is the date for the annual style show to be given at the Palm House at the junction of Palm Canyon drive and Highway 111. Members of the club who have dress shops are invited to show four models, and there will also be an entertaining program. Surrounding Woman's clubs and guests are invited. The Palm House will seat several hundred persons so there is no limit to those who may attend.

Luncheon will be served at 1 p.m. and reservations may be made by club members with Mrs. Lolita Waller, or by non-members with Mrs. Mabell Carson, Sunny Dress Shop, opposite to the Cathedral post office. Mrs. Carson will be in charge of the Style Show as she has had much experience along these lines in Los Angeles.

La Quinta Worker Held in Check Case

In county jail yesterday was Leo Gonzales Moreno, 19-year-old La Quinta laborer who was ordered held to answer to superior court when he appeared in Indio city court on a forgery charge. Bail was set at $2000.

ChuckawallaWell-Known Desert Dweller Back Again

Nature lovers welcome the return of Chuckawalla Slim back to his desert haunts.

He is located in a trailer on the highway east of Cathedral where he invites his friends in to see his marvelous collection of stones and gems.

Chuckawalla has been coming to the desert for thirty-five years and can tell many interesting tales of this country's development.

Among other interesting things he has a collection of over 100 Indian baskets.

Cathedral City Personals

Eva Smith entertained her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Altop of Redlands over the Christmas holidays. They brought the New Year in with 34 friends of the Latter Day Saints church, at a unique party at Pinon Flats.

The Cathedral City Water and Development company announces the opening of its new office on D streets between Glenn and Van Fleet.

Mrs. Margaret Graefe passed away in northern California and her friends here send their sympathy to her family. Mrs. Graefe was a resident of Cathedral for several years.

Morton Scott and wife were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Scott, of Scott's House of Gifts. Mr. Scott works for North American Aircraft.

Riley Egbert was rushed to the White Memorial hospital last week for a brain operation. The family was anxiously awaiting word of his condition today.

Ahmo Rater and husband John closed the date shop for three days and went visiting for Christmas.

Scouts Back From Five-Day Journey Across Mountains

Bob Higgins and Kenneth Young of Palm Springs, two season scouts set out for a five-day hike over the holidays.

They started from Idyllwild where they left their car. Their first camp site was Tahquitz Valley after a five-mile hike.

The second day they walked to Hidden Lake and Desert View overlooking a beautiful valley.

Walking was slow as they blazed a trail through three feet of snow.

The third day they walked to the 4,000 foot elevation to the spot where Tramway will be located.

The fourth and fifth days they walked back to Palm Springs through Chino Canyon. They saw no wild animals but many deer tracks.

Sheer drops of 1000 feet and more into Chino Canyon made the trip a slow and hazardous one.

Year's in Arcadia with Bob's sister and were joined by his brother Don who flew from New York to be with them. Bert Wade and wife Leila flew up from Fresno to join a brother who had flown in from Guam. Mrs. Mae Rogers has named her infant son Derryl Dean and it is so pretty we think readers would like to hear it.

Mrs. Agnes Wilbor is expected home soon from her trip to Florida where she went to visit her daughters Jane and Bette; both gave her a grandson last year. Elmer, Walt and Harriet Colglazier spent Christmas with Elmer's mother in Colorado Springs. Elmer may go on to Peoria, Ill., before returning in the spring.

To list those Cathedralites who have been sick with Virus X would fill this entire page. Except to state that hardly a family escaped, and that several who got up too soon came down again with pneumonia, we will not go into details. It is thought now that the epidemic is under control. Measles and mumps complicated the picture for the children.

Mrs. Bessie Kelley, president of the Woman's Club and Mary Wolseth, vice-president, are making rounds delivering Year Books and wishing members a happy New Year.

Great Work Accomplished by Community Hospital Revealed In Statement by President Bennett Outlining the essentials of his report to be made before the annual meeting of the directors of the Palm Springs Community Hospital association, January 15 at 2 p. m. at the Fiesta House, Frank Bennett, president of the board revealed in a statement last week the great work the hospital has done in the past year here.

"In the early days of the Village," he said, "there was a man who came to be the most popular 'man about town,' he was the Village's first doctor. That was 38 years ago. Late reports show we now have 29 doctors, many of them coming to our community, since your hospital was established less than 2 years ago. Until then, emergency and accident cases had to be transported to Indio, 25 miles away or Riverside or Redlands, a distance of 50 miles."

"Faced with this serious situation, the people of your community did something about it, through their contributions they established your present Non Profit Community hospital."

MANY LIVES are being saved, through the use of the wide range of hospital services, it is equipped to render and through the able assistance of the many staff physicians, surgeons and medical specialists. Some idea of the hospital services rendered may be visualized from the following records:

Patients hospitalized, 1570; Births at hospital, 140. Operations performed, 564. X-Rays taken, 1358. Laboratory tests made, 6560. Number of doctors on staff, 29.

WHILE the hospital must make regular charges to those of its patients, who can afford to pay, it must, true to its name, provide the same care for those who cannot afford to pay all or a part of the cost of their illness. In order that the hospital may continue to operate, this difference between what it takes in and what it must pay out, is provided through this medium of public appeal.

"Will you do your part? We shall try to do ours."

Chooses Jail To Paying $100

Rather than pay a fine of $100 for driving his automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquors, Eugene Van LaBoon, 53, 1886 South Palm Canyon drive, chose to work the fine out by serving 50 days in the Riverside county jail.

This was the sentence meted out by Judge Eugene E. Therneau Monday morning following LaBoon's arrest Saturday at 7:40 p.m. when the automobile he was driving crashed into the rear of one driven by Charles Cota, 600 South Palm Canyon drive.

Reverend James Blackstone, pastor of the Community church gave the benediction at the unveiling.

Names inscribed on the plaque are:

Leonard R. Bryant, Owen B. Coffman, Richard F. Gill, Allen R. Hall Jr., Norval W. Kelly Jr., Steven J. Levi, Herbert H. Liebau, David K. Manson, Pete Iila, Stephen P. Pavel, Earl B. Pinckard, Roaul Prieto, Albert J. Reaume, Vernon M. Troutt, Thomas Villa and Benjamin Ward. Thomas Villa and Benjamin Ward.

Ceremonies at the Wars Memorial building were preceded by a parade down Palm Canyon drive with the Riverside American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps furnishing the music.

After the ceremony, approximately 100 Legionnaires including Commander O'Neil and his party were guests at a delightful buffet luncheon hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Davis of the Colonial House.

cion in impressing people and countries into the orbit of communism."

He said that in order to gain the peace we won in World War II, persons should at all times carry the memory of the 16 young men who went forth from this community and others throughout the United States to fight and die for the principles of our way of life.

"If we fail," he continued, "then the sons of those mothers who gave their all, died in vain."

AFTER PAYING a glowing tribute to the Coffman family for the assistance it gave Owen Coffman post in constructing the Memorial, he announced that a special citation of merit had been awarded to Nellie Coffman who was expected to be at the ceremonies but was unable to do so because of illness.

Commander Connell in his opening address thanked all members of the Legion and Villagers for the assistance both moral and financial given in building the Memorial building. Practically every seat in the huge auditorium was occupied with 300 estimated present.

Connell paid particular tribute to Charles C. (Shorty) Knupp for his untiring effort in behalf of the Wars Memorial building and as one of the first local Legionnaires to start the campaign rolling.

He told those assembled that the building contractor, Ryland S. Pinckard without a doubt lost money in the construction of the Wars Memorial building and that the personal interest Pinckard took in building it was inspired by the memory of his son Earle B. Pinckard, Village serviceman who lost his life in World War II.

FOLLOWING the addresses in the auditorium, spectators and dignitaries repaired to the outside entrance of the building where National Commander O'Neil unveiled a granite plaque with the names of Village service men who never returned from the field of battle inscribed thereon.

Reverend James Blackstone, pastor of the Community church gave the benediction at the unveiling.

Names inscribed on the plaque are:

Leonard R. Bryant, Owen B. Coffman, Richard F. Gill, Allen R. Hall Jr., Norval W. Kelly Jr., Steven J. Levi, Herbert H. Liebau, David K. Manson, Pete Iila, Stephen P. Pavel, Earl B. Pinckard, Roaul Prieto, Albert J. Reaume, Vernon M. Troutt, Thomas Villa and Benjamin Ward.

DECLARATION OF ESTIMATED TAX

Thursday, January 15, 1948, is the last day for taxpayers on calendar-year basis to file or amend the Declaration of Estimated Tax on 1947 earnings.

The declaration of estimated tax took effect through the Current Tax Payment Act of 1943 and the purpose of the declaration is to provide a "Pay-as-you-go" plan for professional and business people, farmers, salaried employees in the upper tax brackets, and taxpayers whose earnings are not subject to withholding. According to the act you must file a declaration if:

(a) Total gross income from salaries subject to withholding will exceed $5000.00, plus $500.00 for each dependent you claim.

(b) Total gross income from sources other than salaries will exceed $100.00 AND the total gross income from all sources will exceed $500.00.

Declarations may be filed on March 15th, June 15th, September 15th and the following January 15th. All declarations before January 15th may be more or less "guess work" but in order to avoid penalties the declaration filed on January 15th must be computed so that the total tax paid during the year and withholding, if any, will amount to at least 80% of the tax due, (66 2/3 for farmers and ranchers.)

On March 15, 1947, you probably filed a declaration of estimated tax. If this declaration was based on the same amount of net income as your 1946 net income and you paid your quarterly tax on that basis during 1947, you will not need to amend your declaration. However, if you based your declaration on substantially less income and you now have reason to believe that your income will be higher than in 1946, you should amend your declaration. Conversely, if your earnings are substantially less than you estimated March 15, 1947, you should file an amended declaration to avoid overpayment of the tax.

for as compared with our democratic way of life.

"THE AVERAGE AMERICAN would be surprised at the inroads commies have made in high political offices, and the manner in which they have infiltrated practically every walk of life," O'Neil said.

Recently 75 volunteers representing every section of this country came to Washington to undergo a course in training in methods to be used in combating the red menace. Teachers consisted of members of the FBI, former communists and other department heads of the government.

"THE OBJECT of the school," O'Neil said, "is to point out the pitfalls of communism and to be sure that a person is rightfully labelled communist before being accused of such adherence."

He added that Reds make great propaganda of reports that so-and-so is a Red when the opposite is the truth, accusing Americans of "witch-hunting."

He pooh-poohed the remark of one reporter that American communists are not necessarily connected with the Red Comintern in Moscow, Russia.

"THERE ISN'T A RED in this country whose every action isn't guided by Uncle Joe Stalin's henchmen."

The Legion nationally is launched on a program to reduce the cost of Veteran's Housing by 25 per cent. O'Neil said that a bill presented by Congresswoman Edith Nourse, chairman of Veterans Affairs, seemingly had the greatest support.

"Twenty-five identical bills by Congressmen have also been presented and it looks like this legislation will meet with the approval of congress."

WITH O'NEIL in Palm Springs for the dedication ceremony was his wife, California Commander of the Legion Harry L. Foster and his wife; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Emmett, Ventura, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jones, Omaha, Nebraska. Jones is acting as aide-de-camp to the National commander.

The group returned to Los Angeles Saturday afternoon from whence the commander and Jones will continue their swing around the country acquainting Legion state departments with the national program of the Legion.

Finerman Will Open New Drug Store in March

Morris Finerman, an experienced druggist who has been in Palm Springs for the past two and one half years, yesterday said he was opening his own drug store here sometime late in February or early in March in the rapidly developing new business section around Ramon road and Indian avenue.

The new store, a name for which has not yet been chosen, will carry a complete line and also operate a fountain and luncheonette.

Associated with him will be his brother, Herman Finerman, now in the east but who is expected
